Where do you see yourself 10 years from now? Do you think you'll still be performing in porn?

Ten years from now I will no longer be in front of the camera, but I'm sure I'll still be involved in producing adult content and running a strip club, which I plan on opening in the next few years.

What is your best sex tip?

To be honest, I think that the best sex advice I could give is that you should choose your partner wisely. Make sure you give yourself to someone who you can really cede control to, then stay in the moment and don't let other thoughts about anything else come between you and a good fuck sesh.

If you could travel anywhere in the world, where would you go?

My dream destination that I have yet to explore is Paris, France. I've been to South Korea, Panama, Canada, all over Mexico, and even lived in Eastern Europe, but still haven't had the chance to get to Paris!

What's the weirdest thing you've ever been asked to autograph?

A very ballsy female fan asked me to sign her vibrator once. I graciously obliged.

What's the last book you read?

The last book I read was Can't Find My Way Home: America in the Great Stoned Age by Martin Torgoff. I love books on American history/culture, and I'm also a big fan of biographies on musicians, politicians, etc.

I think that you have the most beautiful hair. Why do you think redheads are always described as “fiery”?

Redheads get slapped with the “fiery” or “feisty” label because a significant percentage of gingers tend to be easily angered!

I really enjoy watching your girl-girl work, but do you have any plans to do hardcore boy-girl scenes?

No, my only plan has always been to be the biggest lesbian porn star out there! That’s always been my goal.

What or who inspires you most?

I consider myself lucky in that my friends inspire me all the time by supporting me and encouraging me to work hard and be the best porn star, lover, businesswoman, and friend that I can be!

You do a lot of feature dancing engagements. What do you consider your favorite or most memorable fan encounter?

Anytime a fan comes out to one of my feature dancing weekends at their local strip club, it’s always memorable! Especially when they are excited to meet and chat for a while but still remain respectful.

What about you makes you such an asset to the porn industry?

I believe that any female who displays professionalism, performs well, loves what she does, and is down to earth and a joy to be around is always an asset to any profession, and I would definitely put myself in that category.

If a movie were made about your life, which actress do you think should play Jayden Cole?

Ariel from The Little Mermaid. Those Disney girls are naughty!
